

YOUR GIFT AT WORK

ALL DAY, EVERY DAY.

HERE IS AN EXAMPLE OF HOW YOUR GIFT IS CHANGING THE STORY EACH DAY:

6:00 a.m.

A student leaves for school with a backpack full of donated school supplies

7:00 a.m.

A high school student considers their career path with their mentor

8:00 a.m.

A family is able to settle their landlord dispute thanks to their volunteer attorney

11:00 a.m.

A home bound individual receives a weekly visit from a volunteer

12:00 p.m.

Community members gather weekly to share a meal

1:00 p.m.

A working parent drops their toddler off for affordable childcare programming.

4:00 p.m.

Youth of all ages receive a healthy, hot evening meal and understand the nutritional value of the meal

5:00 p.m.

A parent learns how to communicate without anger

6:00 p.m.

A teen parent graduates high school

9:00 p.m.

High school students participate in drug and alcohol free activities.

10:00 p.m.

A variety of low cost transportation options are available

11:00 p.m.

Family members reflect on guidance received as their family member is diagnosed with dementia

2:00 a.m.

A victim of abuse receives the services that she needs

3:00 a.m.

A 24-hour crisis service provides a victim of sexual assault the supports they need

4:00 a.m.

A young adult utilizes skills learned to budget within their income

9:00 a.m.

A young adult sees the dentist for the first time in over ten years.

10:00 a.m.

An inmate attends classes at the jail and then finds a job and housing upon release

2:00 p.m.

Students receive education in the area of STEM and the culinary arts

3:00 p.m.

Volunteers build a ramp on a home for a person recovering from surgery

7:00 p.m.

Community members listen to a father share his story of his daughter whose life ended by a drunk driver

8:00 p.m.

Parents gather to learn more about raising their preschoolers

12:00 a.m.

Individuals struggling with mental health concerns find a safe place to share

1:00 a.m.

An individual recovering from knee surgery can easily navigate with medical equipment that they were able to borrow at no cost

5:00 a.m.

Washington Island residents are connected to a variety of health-care services

United Way of Door County