Songsmith Renegades Concert to benefit United Way of Door County

On Friday, March 21st, the sounds of the Songsmith Renegades will fill Third Avenue Playhouse as a joint fundraiser for United Way of Door County and TAP. The concert will begin at 7:30pm. For a sneak peek of what the Songsmith Renegades will be bringing to Door County, they will also be performing at Brew on Thursday, March 20th from 11:30-12:30pm. Brew is located on Highway 42 in Ellison Bay. Later that afternoon, Dan and Travis will be performing at Door Peninsula Winery, located at 5806 Highway 42 in Carlsville from 3:00-4:00pm. A free glass of wine will be offered for those who listen to the band. Glas Coffeehouse will host them on Friday afternoon from 4:00-5:00pm. Glas is located at 67 E. Maple St., Sturgeon Bay.

Daniel Anderson and Travis Cooper join together as the Songsmith Renegades to bring you a unique mixture of Americana Rock and Country, with a hint of blues and jazz. Anderson and Cooper are schooled in the great tradition of songwriting. Drawing from their influences and experiences, they meticulously craft their music, accepting nothing less than perfection from themselves. As kindred spirits, they have joined together to travel and play their songs to audiences, such as you.

“We are pleased to be working with Third Avenue Playhouse to bring Songsmith Renegades to Sturgeon Bay,” commented Amy Kohnle, United Way Executive Director. “We thank Inge Alverson Bacon, CPA, R.W. Baird & Co. and the Door County Eye Associates for sponsoring this concert. Dan and Travis are extremely talented; we are thrilled that we were able to get a date on this spring’s Wisconsin Tour.” Songsmith Renegades will also be appearing at the following venues during their stay in Door County. For a sampling of what they will offer, check out their website www.songsmithrenegades.com.

Tickets are available at the Third Avenue Playhouse Box Office, by calling 920-743-1760, or on their website www.thirdavenueplayhouse.com.
